

What's a little contention between friends? Contrasting views make life more interesting, and wine more rewarding. We may challenge each other, but united we stand our ground and answer to just three things. Our hearts. Our tastebuds. And the like-minded folk who visit us. Everything else is debatable. After all, in Canberra taking sides comes with the Territory. So here's to you, however you are. Raise a glass, ruffle some feathers, and celebrate your contentious character. It makes you someone worth drinking with.
